Third Annual Project Empower Cabaret
 May 1, 2010, 6:00 to 9:30 p.m.
 Baptist Temple, 1101 Clover Street, Rochester
www.projectempower.org

What do Thomas Warfield, Phyl Contestable (RevMo), the Bow Ties and Women of Note have in common? They, along with many others, are joining together to empower women for the Third Annual Cabaret, on May 1, 2010, benefiting Project Empower, a program that helps women live into their full potential. And we are inviting you to join in the effort to help women's dreams of a new and different life come true.

The Cabaret is well-known for its exceptional and varied entertainment, excellent and abundant food, and lots of fun. Our performers are nearly all professional and just about everything is donated from the entertainment down to the food, decorations, and silent auction items.

We have worked with well over 200 women now from all walks of life over the past few years. We especially enjoy our work with women from Liberty Manor, the most intensive, restrictive, long-term residential program for women with addiction in the area. We come alongside to support, challenge, listen, teach and strengthen women on their path to recovery and wholeness. Our program is expanding with a Friends program and follow up program for women once they leave Liberty Manor.

Last year we were treated to a dance routine of Liberty Manor women themselves, led by our dance and exercise director, Alison Jameson. The performance of Aretha Franklin's Respect garnered a standing ovation. Another dance number is planned for this year.

We are reaching out to you as we believe we share common goals in strengthening our community. Whether a gift of $50 or $5000, your sponsorship helps underwrite this exciting benefit and program. Here's how you can help:

- Be an event sponsor with a cash donation
- Donate hors d'oeuvres, goods or services
- Donate items and gift certificates for our silent auction

In appreciation of your support, we will provide ad space in our attractive program and on our website as well as free tickets for donations of $250 and above. Your donations are fully tax deductible and you will receive a letter for your records.

Thank you so much for considering our request for partnership. Your generous donations will be invested in Changing the World, One Woman at a Time, starting right here in Rochester and Monroe County.

Your partner in dreaming a better world,

Empowering Women to live into their full potential!

All sponsors will be acknowledged
 in our newsletter and eZine,
